REXX STAKING

Multilevel token staking, also known as nested token staking, is a type of token staking wheremstakers can earn rewards from their own stake as well as from the stake of users they refer to the staking platform. This creates a referral system where stakers are incentivized to bring new users to the platform. Multi level token staking is typically implemented using a smart contract that tracks the referral relationships between stakers. When a staker refers a new user to the platform, the new user's stake is automatically nested under the referring staker's stake. This means that the referring staker will earn rewards from the new user's stake, even if the new user does not directly stake any tokens. The amount of rewards that a staker earns from their referral network is typically determined by the depth of their referral tree. In other words, stakers who have more referrals will earn more rewards. Multi level token staking can be a very effective way to attract new users to a staking platform and to increase the total amount of staked tokens. However, it is important to note that multilevel token staking can also be used to create scams and fraudulent schemes.

How multilevel staking works

- Staker A deposits 100 tokens into the staking platform.
- Staker A refers Staker B to the platform
- Staker B deposits 50 tokens into the platform.
- Staker A now earns rewards from both their own stake and Staker B's stake.
- Staker A refers Staker C to the platform.Staker C deposits 25 tokens into the platform.
- Staker A now earns rewards from their own stake, Staker B's stake, and Staker C's stake.
- The referral system can continue to grow in this way, with each staker earning rewards

Decentralization

What is decentralization? What are its benefits and advantages?
Decentralized marketing is created on an automated contract that guarantees you maximum security and stability.A smart contract is an algorithm with automatic execution. It exists inside the Smart Chainblockchain,* which is one of the top cryptocurrencies. Smart contracts, like cryptocurrencies themselves, are decentralized. They work strictly according to a certain program, and once they are launched, it is impossible to change their mode of operation. The code that determines the logic of a smart contract is written in a blockchain, and all calculations are performed by millions of computers around the world. This ensures that a smart contract cannot be hacked or stopped

*Blockchain is an immutable register of transactions and information, protected from any further manipulation by cryptographic methods. It is simultaneously maintained by thousands of independent computers around the world
